

Chalk Couture Privacy Policy

We gather and utilize various types of information listed below. By using this website (<http://www.chalkcouture.com>) (the "Site"), users of this Site ("you") signify your acceptance of these Privacy Policies (the "Policy"). Note that this Policy applies only with respect to the information collected by Chalk Couture through your access to, and interaction with the Site, and not any information collected or obtained through other methods or sources.

"Public Information" will include that information available for registered members to view, or demographic information. This includes your demographic information such as gender, name, age, birth date, purchase history information, browsing history information, appearance, zip code and geographical location or any other information deemed necessary by Chalk Couture.

"Private Information" is information that can personally identify you such as your real name, email address or credit card number. When you register to use any Site service, you will be asked for some general identifying information to enable us to provide you with this individualized service. This information may include email addresses, personal information and credit card information. Credit card transactions may be processed by the Site via its third party intermediary/financial institution, or by a professional payment authorization service chosen for security and reliability. In either case, only the purchase price and the credit card information provided by the customer will be supplied, and such information will be maintained in their database for accounting and billing purposes. This information is encrypted via a secure server to ensure that others cannot read it. Once on the secure server your credit card information is sent to a third party intermediary for processing. We are currently using a trusted credit card processing system and an SSL security certificate.

"Automatic Information" is information that we collect that is not personally identifiable such as your IP address, site usage and purchase behavior, browser type, browser activity, and browser settings. We use your IP and/or Mac address to avoid fraudulent registrations, and monitor site usage demographics and dynamics. Information that we may obtain regarding your browser and browser settings may be used to ensure that our site's technical features are available to you. Except as permitted herein, the specific information we collect is not rented, sold, or shared with any third party without your explicit consent and is only ever disclosed in situations where required by law.

Sharing of Information. While data from the Site is maintained in a common database, only the Public Information located in your Site profile will be shared. Private Information is never shared, without your explicit consent. Chalk Couture adheres to a consistent set of privacy policies, and therefore follow the same principles outlined in this Policy; provided, however, that the public demographic information contained in your profile may be presented and/or displayed as Chalk Couture reasonably considers as is necessary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at no time will your Private Information be disclosed or presented, except in accordance with the provisions of this Policy. Furthermore, except as permitted herein, Chalk Couture does not rent, sell, or share personal information about you with any third party, except to the third party intermediary or financial institution that processes your transaction, or where required by law. However, we may use demographic information to tailor the Site and communications to your interests, and we may share demographic information with advertisers or other third parties on an anonymous and aggregated basis, such that individual Private Information, or behavior traceable to you may not be determined (i.e., without telling the advertisers your identity). Our sharing of demographic information is anonymous (i.e., we do not tell which particular users are members of which demographic groups), subject to the rest of this Policy. Please be advised however, that if/when you respond to an advertisement and give the advertiser your personal information, then the advertiser may be able to identify you as being a member of that demographic group. We also may disclose your personal information, or financial information, to our subsidiary and parent companies, and other affiliated legal entities, and businesses with whom we are under common corporate control. Whenever personal information, or financial information, is disclosed in accordance with this Policy, we may also disclose your demographic information on a non-anonymous basis. Chalk Couture will use its best efforts to ensure that all of our parent, subsidiary and affiliated legal entities and businesses that receive your personal information, financial information, or non-anonymous demographic information from us will comply with the terms of this Policy with respect to their use and disclosure of such information. Please be advised further, that to operate the Site, including processing your transactions and supporting your activities on the Site, there may be a need to share your personal information with our agents, representatives, contractors and service providers, so they can provide us with support services (e.g., authorization of credit card transactions, email origination, receipt or support services, customer relationship management services, order fulfillment and sweepstakes and promotional fulfillment.) Those third parties may use your Private Information in accordance with their own privacy policies. You will need to contact those third parties to instruct them directly regarding your preferences for the use of your personal information by them.
